2007 Exemption Application for Motor Vehicle Used for Production of Income and for Personal Activities

An individual is entitled to an exemption from taxation for one motor vehicle the individual owned on January 1, 2007. The exemption will only apply to a vehicle used in the course of their occupation or profession and also used for personal activities that do not involve the production of income. This exemption does not apply to a motor vehicle used to transport passengers for hire (such as but not limited to, a taxi, bus, or limousine). You must file the completed form by April 1, 2008. Attach a copy of the current vehicle registration receipt to this application. Failure to do so will result in the denial of the exemption. You may protest a denial of the exemption to the Appraisal Review Board.

If you file this application, do not include the same motor vehicle in your annual rendition form. If the exemption is granted, you do not need to reapply annually, but you must reapply if the Chief Appraiser requires you to do so, or if you want the exemption to apply to a different vehicle not listed in this application. You must notify the Chief Appraiser in writing before April 30th if and when your right to this exemption ends.

For the purposes of this application, an individual is one person or owner, as in a sole proprietor (not a partner, corporation, or cooperative). Motor vehicle means a passenger car or light truck. Passenger car means a motor vehicle, other than a motorcycle, golf cart, taxi, bus or limousine, designed or used primarily for the transportation of persons. Light truck means a commercial motor vehicle that has a manufacturer's rated carrying capacity of one ton or less.
